Dear Dr. Metlay

I appreciate that you would want to consult me; I am not sure that I can offer you the utmost of wisdom, but perhaps I can point you to some who might.

Suggestions -- consult with:

Dr. Stewart Levy at Tufts
Dr. Jim Hughes, Director, Nat Ctr Inf Dis. at CDC
See editorial board members of the CDC journal: Emerging Infectious Disease.

I don't know who has been heading unit at Harvard, since David Hamburg left a few years ago. It may be out of date, but Barbara McNeill was listed as Health Care Policy.

If you have specific geographic preferences, I might be able to probe some particular institutions more deeply.

Good luck.

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
